Subject: Talking Points for National Interviews

Governor,

From the oil and gas perspective, attached are the talking points for your three national interviews this week.

As I am sure others are working on, all three may ask a range of questions from abortion to guns and oil. The attached only discusses oil and gas issues.

Glenn Beck (CNN) probably has the greatest chance of launching into numerous issues. He loves to make fun of everyone and is incredibly good natured. You should laugh a lot with him. He has a couple children and recently adopted one, if not two, children. Glenn is pro-drilling, pro-oil. You both should see eye-to-eye other than he doesn't feel people should always pick on the oil companies.

Larry Kudlow (pronounced KUDD-low) is with CNBC and Kudlow & Company. His energy mantra is, "Drill. Drill. Drill." and doesn't understand why the Presidential candidates don't get it. On Monday, CNBC is launching a full-day show re: historical meetings with Saudi Arabia tomorrow. In my opinion, your interview with Kudlow will be all oil and gas. Sharon can shed further light once they provide more hints. Again, he should be a friendly, but he is all about the numbers and firing questions and shouting. You'll see we have a section in the attached that provides a number of specifics for you re: Alaska's oil and gas reserves, etc.

Also, here is a link to a Kudlow article that you may find helpful reading as well:

Neil Cavuto I have not been able to watch because I do not get FOX News. Sharon will also hopefully have more information on him for you, if you do not already have it.

There are two highlighted portions: price of gas in the bush - we'll have the latest numbers for you in a couple of days. And I am waiting for the exact dollars re: price per barrel upon which the state balances its budget. The figures in the attached are rough.

Please let us know if you need anything else.

Thanks,

Meghan

If you have a chance to look at your calendar on the July 9 departure from ANC - let me know if you want to do that Wed. Evening or the next day Thur. Evening departure. You will be out of state either 5 or 6 full days. I will then put Bristol on same flights. Thank you, Janice
